We invite you to our 2009 annual Event:

Event: Desi Democrats: It's a Blue thing
Date: Saturday, May 30, 2009
Time: 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM
Location: Reddy Plaza, 6825 So. Galena Street,
Centennial, CO 80112

The event will be an opportunity for Desis ("desi" is a friendly nickname for a person of South Asian origin, especially living away from home) and like-minded non-Desis to meet and network with local, regional and national elected officials.

Desi Democrats as an organization and its members have been very active in defining the political landscape of the state. The Desi Democrats have partnered with local Democratic Party and candidates in turning the state blue. Our event, theme is a celebration of all past success with an eye for the future, as the blue wave must go on.

U.S. Senator Mark Udall has kindly consented to be the Guest of Honor for the occasion.

Please join us for an evening to remember. We will also nurture our common progressive vision, treasure the personal contact and enjoy some wonderful Indian refreshments.

Sincerely

Sudhir Verma
